LIFE'S BIGGEST JOY

For all the gold of all the kings,
And all of their ancestral line,
I would not give the little things—
The simple joys that I call mine.

Tho' gems encrust each royal cup,
I still would drink from pewter, lest
I'd miss the eyes that, welling up Brim across at me and call me blest!

For gems that stud the royal hands
I would not give a single tear
Of joy I shed when baby hands
Confide in mine and laugh at fear.

The jingle in their royal palm
Of all the gold they ever had,
Discordant is beside the psalm,
When children smile and call me
"Dad."

ARE YOU A DISCONTENTED WOMAN?

Would you rather be a society butterfly or a happy young mother fondling her child? You should see "Bondage" featuring Dorothy Phillips at the Pastime Thursday, February 7.

MAY'S LICK

Fred G. Bale, Lecturer of the Lyceum Course, will speak at the May's Lick High School on Thursday, February 7, at 7:30 p. m. He will especially please the boys and their parents.

TEAGER-LOCKETT

Miss Nannie Teager, One of Maysville's Most Popular Young Ladies, United in Marriage Yesterday to Mr. Thomas Hickman Lockett, of Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Nannie Nesbitt Teager, only daughter of Mr. James N. Teager, surprised a number of her friends here yesterday by being quietly married yesterday afternoon to Mr. Thomas Hickman Lockett, of Nashville, Tenn., the ceremony being performed at the home of her brother, Dr. A. O. Taylor, by the Rev. A. F. Stahl, pastor of the Christian Church. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lockett left on C. & O. train No. 1 for a short bridal trip in the South, after which they will return to Nashville to make their future home. The bride is a most charming and accomplished young lady and most popular in the younger circle of this city.

The groom is a promising young business man of Nashville, Tenn., and is connected with the Kosmos-Dale Cement Co., of Louisville. He formerly resided at Henderson, Ky., and was educated at Centre College, Danville, Ky., where he was prominent in oratory contests and as the head of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity there. The best wishes of their many friends here go with them.

CLASS 1 DRAFTERS

To Be Examined in a Few Days—Fifty Mason County Men to Be Ordered to Camp Taylor Soon—No. 100 to One Hundred and Fifty to Appear for Examination to Go Out Today.

Physical examinations for one hundred and fifty registered men placed in Class 1 by the County Exemption Board will appear for examination within the next few days. Word has been received by the Board from the Adjutant General of the state that fifty more Mason county young men will be ordered to Camp Zachary Taylor soon. Dr. J. H. Hutchins, examining physician of the local board, received the following telegram last night.

"We will call upon you within the next few days to furnish the remainder of white men in your current quota. Every effort should be made to immediately examine all men in this quota and have them finally classified. After examining sufficient men to fill your quota with a reasonable number in reserve, you will discontinue physical examination of the Class 1 men until next regulations for physical examination reach you, which will be distributed in a few days."

ADJUTANT GENERAL

The local board has not been able to secure other headquarters up to the present time and several gas stoves will be installed in the old quarters at the government building in an effort to keep the place warm enough that there will be no discomfort to the men appearing for examination. If this course proves unsatisfactory it will be necessary to hold the examinations elsewhere.

HOME GUARD ORGANIZATION

For This City Is Urged By Department of State and Federal Affairs of Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Home Guards Division of the Department of State and Federal Affairs of the Chamber of Commerce was held Monday morning in the office of Director W. W. Ball, Jr.

Quite an interesting discussion ensued relative to the manner, method and advisability of some such organization for Maysville. It was the sense of all present that the times warrant such an organization.

Many other cities have already established the Home Guard Organizations and have received the endorsement of their Governor. No one can tell when occasion shall arise to demonstrate the need of such an organization. "It's always best to lock the stable before the horse is stolen," said Mayor Russell. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

The Home Guard Division of the Chamber of Commerce adopted a motion at the meeting extending to the Laws and Ordinance Committee of the City Council and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Maysville their endorsement of the establishment of a home guard organization for the city of Maysville.

MANY CALLS FOR COAL

County Judge Purnell is having many calls for coal, both from the people of the city and county. Many people read of the purchase of two cars of lump coal by Judge Purnell and on account of the price he placed on it are very anxious to get as much as he will let them have. The coal will arrive here within a few days and will be allotted to each customer at the rate of 25 bushels until the supply is gone.

FROZEN FIRE HYDRANT

Caused Delay in Fighting Early Morning Fire at Home of John Collins on Fifth Street—Fire Department Called Out Twice—Loss About $600.

The fire department responded to an alarm of fire this morning at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. John Collins on Fifth street, East of Plum. The blaze was caused by a defective fuse and started on the first floor. The fire was extinguished with chemicals.

At 5 o'clock this morning the fire department was again called out to the same place. The fire had again broken out and this time had gained greater headway.

It was seen that it would be necessary to use water to quench the blaze, but because of the fact that the hydrant of Fourth street, nearest the house, was frozen, it was necessary to go onto Fifth street and there it was found that the hydrant was in working condition. However, the fire had gained considerable headway in the meantime, and it took about half an hour to extinguish it.

Every room in the house was damaged, mostly by the water, which froze quickly. The loss is estimated in the neighborhood of $600.

The firemen were pretty well exhausted by the time they returned to the fire hall the second time, the first alarm keeping them out 45 minutes and the second one hour. On account of the frigid weather, they were pretty well chilled and fatigued.

QUARANTINE ON SCHOOL CHILDREN

County Judge Harry P. Purnell has placed a quarantine on the children of Fleming county who have been attending school at Maysville. The quarantine will remain in force until the homes of the children have been properly fumigated. These children are from a section in which there is an epidemic of scarlet fever.

HOLD YOUR JOB

Information is coming to the Mason County Exemption Board that farmers who have been placed in class one are planning not to raise a crop this year, and others are quitting their jobs expecting to go into the service at once. We would advise that the farmer boys go ahead with their crops and the city boys hold their job as it may be months before you are called into the service, and perhaps you will never be called.

SHERMAN ARN,
Chairman Mason County Board.

FIRST DISTRICT P-T. A.

SOUTHERN DICTATION

Representative Cantrill of Kentucky arose to speak as a practical man. He was urging Southern Democrats to support the suffrage amendment on the ground that the important committee chairmanships in Congress are "held by Southern Democrats, who thus practically dictate the legislation of the nation." This control, he asserted, is in the hands of Southern Democrats because, "as every one knows, the woman suffrage States in the last Presidential election voted almost solidly for Democratic electors and candidates. For the Democratic party in Congress to vote against the States that gave them this power would, in my humble opinion, be political suicide." Here is much polemic material—with which we shall not deal but the one outstanding assertion which Mr. Cantrill makes will not be called in question. It is his declaration that the Southern Democrats who hold the important chairmanships in Congress "practically dictate" by Claude Kitchin, army legislation "practically dictated" by Mr. Dent, food legislation "practically dictated" by Asbury Lever, naval legislation "practically dictated" by Lemuel Padgett, and almost all other essential legislation "practically dictated" by other Southerners. It is not a pleasing spectacle; and the results are even more displeasing—as witness the revenue bill which has to be amended before it goes into operation, and all because Claude Kitchin "practically dictated" it. If the woman suffrage States are responsible for this, we doubt if they are proud of it.

TAXING NON-VOTERS

George B. Perkins of New York has a new and radical plan for financing political campaigns. He doesn't believe that campaigns need any great amount of financing—nothing more than the money required for compiling and getting before the public in a modest way the principal facts regarding a candidate's experience, ability and principles. And he would provide this money by the simple device of imposing fines on voters who neglect to vote. The delinquents in one election, presumably, would be levied upon for the sines of war needed for the next campaign.

The idea of fining men—or women—who are too lazy and indifferent to use their franchise makes a strong appeal. But a good deal depend n the way that money was spent. If voters had to depend, for their judgment of rival candidates, entirely on data supplied them in capsule form, they would be extremely critical of whoever supplied the data. Any public body charged with this duty would have tremendous political power by virtue of its control of political publicity.

So far, the nearest approach to this is the plan used in some of our western states, by which appeals to voters are handled by the regular election machinery, but the candidates themselves are permitted to state their own qualifications in their own words. There would probably be little objection to financing that sort of campaign by levying on non-voting citizens.

THE SPEED OF NO RETURN

Science sometimes coins a happy and appropriate phrase. One such instance which has something of the romantic in nature is the "speed of no return."

The speed of no return is that speech which one would have to send a body (a bullet, for instance) straight up in the air so that it would never come back. The rate of this speed has been estimated to be about seven miles a second. If a bullet, could be given that velocity away from the earth it would never fall back to our planet, but would travel on into spaces in an orbit of its own around the sun.

As to the possibilities of anything ever attaining this speed no one can say. Scientists say all they know is that the friction of the air would probably melt and then vaporize the body before it succeeded in getting through the earth's ocean of air. The speed of the modern army bullet is about one-twelfth of the speed of no return, being a little over half a mile a second.

Instances of the speed of no return are seen when meteors fall into the atmosphere of the earth. They very seldom actually reach the earth's surface, but are melted and vaporized by the enormous amount of heat evolved from friction with the air at such an enormous velocity. As most meteorites contain iron ore it can be seen that the temperature produced is very great, for it melts and then boils the iron.

Some molecules of hit gases also attain the speed of seven miles a second at the surface of the earth. If they did not happen to hit slower moving molecules or molecules going in an opposite direction they would leave the earth also. One colder gas is the slower the molecules move. If any explorer or inventor should want to leave the earth for a trip to Mars or Venus he would either have to attain this speed of no return or else go up in a giant aeroplane as far as possible and then be shot from a cannon mounted on the airship. The friction of the air would be less at a very high altitude, as well as the speed of no return.

FROM COAST TO COAST

A Remarkable Chain of Home Testimony. And Maysville Adds Its Voice to the Grand Chorus of Local Praise.

From north to south, from east to west; In every city, every community; In every state in the Union Rings out the grateful praise for Doan's Kidney Pills.

50,000 representative people in every walk of life Publically testify to quick relief and lasting results.

And it's all for the benefit of fellow sufferers. In this grand chorus of local praise Maysville is well represented. Well-known Maysville people Tell of personal experiences. Who can ask for better proof of merit?

Ben. P. Fleming, constable of Mason County, 217 East Lee Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Mr. Fleming is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Fleming had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. THINK IT OVER

New Plan To Raise Money For All Governmental Calls For Financial Aid Is To Secure Pledges of Dollar a Month For Duration of War.

Every time some of our men are called together of late, they can't refrain from expressing the strain being felt on the purses and time of our citizens from the various calls for finances for the government at war.

Many other cities have felt likewise and have set about in search of some business-like plan, whereby all of the various governmental calls for contributions, for war purposes, might be taken care of.

The plan meeting with the most favorable success is, to obtain the pledges for one dollar per month, for the period of the war, from the fathers, mothers, sons and daughters of the county. These pledges can be paid in monthly, quarterly, semi-annual and annual installments.

A board of directors and a representative from each precinct would constitute a governing body and would pass on each application for financial contributions from Mason county.

The best feature of the plan is that we have only one campaign. The workers have only one campaign to give time to and those subscribing, are approached but once.

This plan does not take care of investments such as Liberty Bonds or the War Savings Certificate and Thrift Stamps. These are investments and must of necessity, be handled by individual campaigns.

This plan has the endorsement of our leading business men and bankers and the committee on Smilge books and was unanimously endorsed by the War Savings Certificate and Thrift Stamp Committee at the Saturday night meeting.

Think it over and if it sounds good to you, tell it to the other fellow. If our citizens want it, they can have it.

"Hundreds of people in this vicinity," says Peterson, "know of the mighty healing power of PETERSON'S OINTMENT in eczema, salt rheum, old sores, itching skin, ulcers, pimples and all diseases of the skin. They know it cures these ailments—that it is guaranteed to cure them."

Now I want to say to every sufferer from piles, either blind, bleeding or itching, that I will guarantee that a 30 cent box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT will rid you of piles or your druggist will return your money.

"For years I suffered terribly with itching and bleeding piles. I tried everything and despaired of ever getting rid of them. It gives me great pleasure to state that Peterson's Ointment entirely cured me, and I sincerely recommend it to all sufferers."

SEEKING SUFFICIENT FARM LABOR

"What will we do about labor?"

That has been one of the foremost questions in the farmer's mind this winter. The labor problem has been and is one of the most important agricultural problems of the war, and yet it is not so difficult as it appears. The United States Department of Agriculture, the United States Department of Labor, State agricultural colleges, and other agencies are cooperating in efforts to relieve the situation. Some of the methods are:

By careful surveys throughout the United States this winter to learn definitely the farm-labor needs anticipated in each section for the spring, summer, and harvest.

To assemble information showing all possible supplies of farm labor in every part of the country.

In every section, to direct all available farm labor to the nearest place where it is needed, and, with changes of seasons and crops, to continue it to other sections as it is needed.

To train high-school boys, and others old enough for effective farm work but not old enough for the Army, in some of the practical fundamentals of farming, to the end that after a few weeks of training in camp early this spring they will be available for farm work in their county or community, under the leadership and supervision of competent Y. M. C. A., boy scout, or other directors.

To use as farm help volunteer workers from towns and cities, who will go to farms in their county or community as crop necessities may require. Preferably, of course, these volunteers should be persons who were reared on farms, or who have done farm work.

In short, to attack the farm-labor problem with a first-line force of all the experienced farm labor that systematic search and patriotic appeals can develop; to back this up with a second line of high-school boys and others have received intensive training-camp courses in farm fundamentals and of men not engaged in work directly essential to the war and who can be transferred from present pursuits to emergency farm work; and finally to throw in the last line of reserves, to be applied only in emergencies, workers who have no farm experience.

It would be much better if it were not necessary to use any untrained labor on the farms. It would be an ideal condition if every farm could be completely manned with experienced help this year. However, like many ideals, that will not be attainable. The Nation possesses enough potential farm labor to supply the farms, if all the possible supplies are efficiently directed to agricultural pursuits and diverted from less essential work—but this doesn't mean that all the farm labor so secured will be experienced in agricultural activity.

Other Countries Have Succeeded

Canada's food crop production has been continued despite just such shortages of skilled farm labor as we now face. It has been done by redirecting the man and boy power of the country, by applying to agriculture classes of labor that normally would not have sought that field. We can do the same thing. And we must—otherwise we'll find Germany running our farms for us. The farmer mustn't lose sight of what it will mean to him personally if he fails to produce food crops, no matter how annoying it may be to have to use some odds and ends of farm help.

And, just as it is a part of the farmer's patriotic obligation to bear with and overcome the inconveniences of the situation, so is it the patriotic obligation of every man of farm experience to arrange his present affairs so that he can go to work where he will be most needed this spring and summer and thus give to his country in an hour of need, the benefit of his skill as a farm worker. And to the men or boy without farm training there is an equally clear call of duty to volunteer for farm work in his community, to go to a farm training camp if there is one in his section, and if not to arrange with some farmer to give him a few weeks' training, thus fitting him for really effective farm work later in the season.

The shortage of experienced farm help is caused only in small part by the enlistment or calling to the colors of men from the farms. Large numbers of farm workers were attracted to manufacturing centers last year by the high wages paid at munitions plants, in the building of cantonments etc. For more than three years there has been a practical suspension of immigration.

A farm-help specialist has been appointed in each State by the United States Department of Agriculture. In turn, he has named or will name county and community representatives who, cooperating with the regular county demonstration agent, the State agricultural colleges, and other organizations, will learn from every farmer his probable labor requirements this year. The United States Department of Labor is extending its machinery and expects to have in every State an organization which will locate possible supplies of farm labor. In each State and community farmers who need farm help, and men who can supply such help or who themselves will go to work on a farm should communicate with the State farm-help specialist, or county or community agent.

Help the boys in the trenches by building roads so that the products of the farm can be hauled to market to feed them.

You are responsible for the condition of the roads because you don't pay sufficient road taxes to build good roads.

You know the conditions of the roads. What are you doing to better things?

Park Lake and Wallingford

George and Charlie Yarnall are selling their personality preparatory to move to Maysville in the near future.

Claude Jones will move to the Fountain place now occupied by Yarnall Bros. now owned by Mr. Ned Brown of your city.

R. A. Hickerson raised 1½ acres of tobacco that net him $300 on the Maysville breaks last Friday. The land that the above tobacco was raised sold recently for $6 per acre.

Luther Thornton of Indianapolis, Ind., came in recently to look after his farm interest here. Mr. Thornton will soon have to go to the war, as soon as he is called from his native state.

Quite a number of farmers around here report their potatoes are frozen. Some in cellars and some covered up under ground, with a foot or more dirt on them. This is a bad time boys, to let your potatoes freeze. They are too high.

The Foxport scribe seems to take a change of venue in securing items. We noticed in his last ad that there were numerous items that was scribbled from Wallingford and Park Lake, a distance of eight miles. We think not put no task on the office force to print items only once from the vicinity of the precinct.

This is a good time to build good fires and sit by them if the other fellow will furnish the wood.

When a fellow out here wants his picture taken with feet up in the air all he has to do is just walk out about the middle of the road, and if he don't get elected it won't be his fault.

The principal traveling done here at present is by boys who have skates. Thomas D. Hise and family of Maysville visited their former home here last week.

WAR FOOD EXHIBIT

On Wednesday from 2 to 6 p. m. an exhibit of six kinds of food made from war time recipes will be held at the Chamber of Commerce under the auspices of the Home Economics Department of the Council of National Defense, Mrs. T. M. Russell, chairman. The food will be prepared by Miss Geisel, which is an assurance that it will be both delicious and wholesome. We are not called upon (as yet) to make the terrible sacrifice of our allies, we are only asked to help win the war by changing somewhat our habits of eating. To learn how to use substitutes for wheat, meat, sugar and lard, and we all wish to know the most palatable way of doing this. So if "seeing is believing" and "the proof of the pudding in the eating", come, see, taste and go home and try it on the family. Recipes distributed. Everything free, including freedom of speech.

Mrs. E. T. David of Douglas, Wyo., has been elected president of the board of trustees of the University of Wyoming. She is the first woman to hold such office.

The Chicago police force now numbers twenty-nine women among its members.

Mr. Official—if you build good roads you will please your constituents—act now.

Remember that the first road built is not the last one to be built.

Are you proud of your county with no roads?

U. S. DEVELOPS BIG PUNCH

To Bring End of War in 1918—Americans Fighting in France To Be Backed to the Limit.

Washington, February 4.—The United States today is developing its greatest punch in the world war.

Americans are now pitted, man to man, against the Germans along a section of the Lorraine front, meeting steel with steel.

The allied council at Versailles has rounded out a definite plan of co-operation by which the American and allied war chiefs will meet Von Hert-long's peace camouflage with the thunder of increasing guns.

Throughout the nation today this government is registering aliens' names, ancestry, business, thumb prints and the like as a precautionary measure preliminary to what is to be the crucial effort in the great war.

There are to be no half-way measures. Neutrals may expect sharp measure when they are deemed vital to this country's success.

New evidence of grim determination to end the struggle in 1918 or soon after by making a herculean effort this year is manifest on all sides.
Once more it is felt the developments have swung back out of the hands of the diplomats and into the hands of the military.

The allied war council has said in answer to Hertling:

"Until you come from behind your mask. We must go ahead."

And working to that end, complete agreement is reported on plans for the conduct of the war.

The military chiefs of the United States and the allies will be given wide authority to act without delaying any vital move for reference to and approval by home governments.

The casualty lists of Americans dying on the field of battle in almost daily clashes with the Germans has brought home to this country the realization that our participation in the war is now in deadly earnest.

And while this for fortune has remained at the side of the transports officials point out that any day may see one lost, the victim of a U-boat that has eluded the American guard.

The Kaiser's papers have scoffed at the American soldier. They have laughed at our officers, "men upon whom," they say, "Secretary Baker has sewed epaulets."

But these men, after months of patient training, are answering the German fire in front-line trenches with great American guns today.

Ships continue a pressing need. The Germans are sinking vessels on an average of over 4,000,000 tons, a year, according to figures compiled here.

But it is now deemed unlikely America can contribute more than 3,000,000 tons this year, although E.
N. Hurley, chairman of the Shipping Board, is still confident of 5,000,000 tons.

The shipping lack, however, has compelled sharp measures with neutrals.

Already Holland has agreed to turn over a percentage of all her cargoes to Belgium relief supplies, that other ships may be released from this work.
Negotiations are pending with Spain to insure safe shipment and delivery across her borders of other supplies needed by the American army in France.

Pending adjustment of this, Spanish ships continue held up in American harbors.

The American embargo will be employed ruthlessly when needed. The great punch must be developed this year, President Wilson says. America will turn every weapon to accomplishment of this end.

The government thrift stamps are now on sale at the C. & O. passenger depot as well as the other places mentioned in yesterday's paper.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture
Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work.
Try it! NC-131

Dr. Roy Glehls has returned to this city and will resume his practice in his new rooms on West Second street, formerly occupied by Dr. W. C. Crowell, dentist.

Maysville Council No. 1377 Knights of Columbus will meet at their hall on Market street this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members urged to be present.

Mrs. Ray Byrne, of Ashland, left yesterday for Cincinnati, after having been the pleasant guest for several days of the Misses Nash, of Market street.

Today is County Court day, the result of County Judge Purnell changing the day from the first Monday in the month to the first Tuesday.

Mrs. Nan Chunn returned to her home on West Third street after a pleasant visit with her son, Mr. T.
Reed Chunn, at Cincinnati.

Mr. W. W. McIlvaine returned home Sunday evening after a visit with his niece, Mrs. Florence Tugle Montgomery, at Chicago.

Maysville again took on a holiday aspect yesterday with all the stores closed and nothing going on except the movies.
